9. Now let's talk about your feelings toward some people who have been mentioned as potential candidates for statewide office. I'll read the name of a person and I will ask you to rate that person on a thermometer that runs from 0 to 100 degrees. Ratings between 50 and 100 mean that you feel favorable and warm toward that person. Ratings between 0 and 50 mean that you don't feel too favorable and are cool toward that person. You may use any number from 0 to 100 to tell me how favorable or unfavorable your feelings are for each person. If we come to a name you recognize, but you don't feel particularly warm or cold toward the person, you would rate the person at the 50 degree mark. If we come to a person whose name you do not recognize you don't need to rate that person. Just tell me and we'll move on to the next one. Are you ready?
